PHOTOS - CINEMA

I would like to take this opportunity to thank and recognize Adi Rosenman of Bridal Publications. I cannot say enough about her. We met when Adi had first heard of our company, we were recommended through a bridal shop for their folder however a photographer had already been in place. Adi researched a bit more and found out we were located in Beacon, New York, where Lady Grey Bridal is located and reached out to me. We instantly hit it off, she's a friendly individual, knowledgeable and extremely well spoken. We have had multiple phone conversations discussing the folders as well as getting to know each other a little bit, this is what impressed me the most and prompted me to work with her. She took the time to get to know me and about our company, she was not like most sales people who just want your money and hang up. This is a great trait in my opinion, this is also something we do in our business, build a close relationship with the clients, so naturally we clicked well. She has been extremely beyond helpful and flexible throughout the whole design process and very understanding. As her deadline approached, I had a family emergency that took up a lot of time during the week, then rushing home for weddings on the weekend, which took my attention elsewhere. Adi was so understanding and she has been nothing short of helpful, friendly and a true pleasure to work with. I look forward to keeping in touch and building a working relationship with Adi and Bridal Publications over the years.

Sincerely,
Josh D. Strong
